Mr. Murphy has been governor of Arizona and is just at present engaged in an aggressive fight to secure the admisof that territory as a state into the Union. He said, in speaking of the possibility of success in that direction: "The people of Arizona are a unit for self-government, and as their representative I am doing all in my power to acquire for them their constitution-al rights in this respect. Six weeks ago there was practically no opposiago there was practically his opposi-tion to admitting Arizona. It was gen-erally conceded that the remaining territories should be admitted, and that the responsibility, expenses and trouble of their governments be transtrouble of their governments be transferred to their own people. But lately considerable irritation has developed on account of the monetary dispute, and notives un-American, sectional and selfish have caused, several hasty sed I think Ill-advised representatives to several hasty sed. to announce their opposition to the admission of any more western states, whose senators, they think, would dis-agree with the east on the money question. The merits involved are temporarily obscured on this account. I have however, too much confidence in the ultimate justice and love of fair play of the American people to think that an entirely extraneous issue will be allowed to prevent justice being done to a loyal and patriotic sub-division of this country."

It is stated in this city from what is considered authoritative sources, that General Garcia, the most distinguished Cuban general now outside of Cuba, sailed from this port on Thursday of this week on board the fruit steamer Bernard, bound for Cuba, and that he will land there with the most formidable expedition that has ever left this country. It is said he will take command of the expedition on the high seas, where he will meet the fruit steamer Jasof, with over 200 men and i large quantity of arms and ammuni-tion on board.

General Garcia came to this city from England on January 18, accompanied by his two sons, Carlos and Justa, His every movement was watched by agents of the Sparish government. TOO MUCH THRESHING.

Country hows who are inclined to think that life in the cities is easy and comfortable compared with their dally toll in the country, are apt to find themselves mistaken when they come to town and subject themselves to the high pressure system of business es-tablishments. An exchange relates an example of this sort:

A farmer's boy went to the city, finding work at home rather tiresome, and obtained a situation in a large "family supply" store where a "rushing business" was carried on. He "took hold" very well, and his employer liked him.
They were surprised, however when he came to them before he had been two months in the store, and said: two months in the store, and said:
"Well. Mr. A. I guess I'll have to get through here next Saturday right,"
